

PLUS: RAJNATH'S RAJ • FIXING INDIAN CRICKET

FREE
TODAY
SIMPLY DELHI
52 PAGES OF METRO MASALA

DECEMBER 11, 2006

INDIA
TODAY

WEST/163/06-08 LICENSED TO POST WITHOUT PREPAYMENT

RAVI S SAHANI

Saravana Bhavan

The Prime Minister's house often orders breakfasts from here, as does chief minister Sheila Dixit. Not to mention sundry ministers from Andhra Pradesh and offices around Connaught Place whose day starts with authentic South Indian fare from the Saravana kitchen. Says manager Ganap-athi Sunder, "Except vegetables, we get all our ingredients like grains, oil, coconut and banana leaves from Chennai; and our cooks are all trained in-house. This keeps the taste constant at all our outlets." Apart from idlis, appams and dosas, which are the specialities, diners should also try the vadas and uttapams. Down them with juices, milkshakes, fruitshakes or glasses of rasam. At: CP, Janpath and Karol Bagh. Tel: 23317755.

RAVI S SAHANI